WHY DRUGGISTS RECOMMEND SWAMP-ROOT

For many years druggists have watched with much interest the remarkable record maintained by Dr. Kilmer's Swamp-Root, the great kidney, liver and bladder medicine.

It is a physician's prescription. Swamp-Root is a strengthening medicine. It helps the kidneys, liver and bladder do the work nature intended they should do.

Swamp-Root has stood the test of years. It is sold by all druggists on its merit and it should help you. No other kidney medicine has so many friends.

Be sure to get Swamp-Root and start treatment at once.

However, if you wish first to test this great preparation send ten cents to Dr. Kilmer & Co., Binghamton, N. Y., for a sample bottle. When writing be sure and mention this paper.—Advertisement.

RAGE FOR FRINGE IN BLACK BROADCLOTH SUITS

Dangling Ornamentation Now Is Popular in Paris.

Decorated Sleeves, With Hat Trimming to Match, Is One of the Latest Ideas.

Paris is making the most of the present rage for fringes and dangling ornaments. One of the latest ideas, says a Paris fashion writer, is the fringed sleeve, with hat trimming to match.

The very wide sleeve of leg o'mutton or pagoda outline is trimmed with bias bands of velvet or with fur, but it is rarely fringed; the fringed sleeve is of comparatively moderate proportions, but then the fringes, silk or chenil, are so long and thick that they reach far down on the dress.

Chenil is in great favor this winter, for dress trimmings as well as for millinery. Magnificent trellis work is done in heavy chenil and silk and used on cape-wraps of Spanish outline and the same fringes are to be seen on the under skirts of coat, and even dress sleeves.

Fashion has decided that we must "dangle" this winter. It may be loose tassels, loops of ribbon, fringes or— for evening frocks—supple trails of flowers and leaves. The choice is wide but the general effect is clearly defined.

In the big department stores of Paris one finds hat trimmings consisting of trellis work and fringes, in chenil or silk, sold separately, all ready to farm and cuffa.

Wool Fringe Trimming One of the Features of This Skirt.

a hat trimming. Sometimes the fringes fall straight at the back; sometimes they fall at one side. John Blanchot, whose picturesque hats are having a great success, has launched a very uncommon model, which has a high trimming at the back which closely resembles a Spanish high comb.

For Children's Dresses.
 Black velvet vies for popularity with fine wool materials such as duvetyne and broadcloth in high shades for children's dresses. Chinese red, bright green henna and rust shades are popular.

COAT DRESSES ARE OF CLOTH

Garments Have Deeply Bloused Bodice and Straight Skirt, With One Side Drape.

Cloth dresses in broadcloth and kasha are popular with smart women now. It is said, with black especially favored. These dresses are made most often in coat style, with a deeply bloused bodice and straight skirt, with one side drape at the closing point on the left. A Canton crepe afternoon gown has a collar of black caracul that reaches all the way to the waistline and the wide sleeves are cuffed in narrow bands of the fur. The straight skirt is quite long, and two separate panels at the side give added length. Two round ivory buttons fasten the narrow belt at the side front.

Henna dresses are shown in the shops and seem to appeal to the majority of shoppers. A coup of a Jenny model is shown in henna Canton, with allover embroidery, and there are two pockets, on one blouse at the left and the other on the skirt at the right.

Black broadcloth suits are popular in Paris for winter wear. This one is faced with dyed squirrel and is set off by broad bands of geometrical work in colored leather cord at coat hem and cuffs.

RIBBONS FOR SPRING STYLE

Moire in Black and All Colors Mentioned as Among Best Sellers for Trimmings.

Moire in black and all colors is mentioned as the best seller for spring trimmings. Circ is still selling fairly well, this too, in all shades. There is not much choice, it is said, between the high colors and the dark ones which have been holding first place.

While business in ribbons has been practically dead for the last two months, now that spring lines are being prepared manufacturers are sampling up and a little of everything is selling. Blacks are still going well, but not quite so largely to the exclusion of others as has been the case.

Metals are quite active, as well as the narrow two-tones in Nos. 3 and 5 which are reviving after a quiet spell. The popularity of the tinsel fabrics is given as a reason for the recent lack of ribbon sales.

THINGS TO BE MADE AT HOME

Serviettes or Tea Napkins, Made of Linen With Dainty Needlework at the Corners.

Worth while pick-up work for winter days will be a set of serviettes or tea napkins, which you may present to a bride or decide to keep yourself for use at afternoon bridge parties. These tiny napkins, purchased in the shops, are very expensive because of the hand work that goes into them, but they may be made very easily at home in spare moments. Any woman can crochet dainty fillet corners for such napkins. The napkins are made of linen—no lesser fabric will give them proper distinction—and the edges are finished with a buttonhole stitch set in with a crochet hook.

The Matinee Purse.
 The latest fad for a matinee purse is one made of metal beads in artistic designs and exquisite colorings. They have narrow strap handles, silk linings and vanity mirrors.

FASHION NOTES OF INTEREST

Mohawk, a warm red brown, really a leather shade, increases in favor. Evening wraps are ravishing in brilliance of color and richness of fabric. Lace veils, with side drapery only, are appearing on large and small hats.

Bouffant effects, even in evening frocks, are generally confined to those designed for young and slender figures. New neckwear materials include white kid, colored leather—especially red—broadcloth and flannel, the latter plain and also checked off in black.

The longer and wider skirt is more in evidence while the belts and girdles waver from the normal waist to hipline according to the design of the gown.

To Decorate Kiddies' Clothes.
 Patent leather and suede are frequently used to trim wool fabric or velvet frocks for children, set on either in the form of flower or piping. And it is interesting to note that fine oil cloth may be similarly applied.

SOME HEARTY DISHES

Cornmeal, either yellow or white, is such a wholesome food that it should be more freely used.

Tamale Pie.—Grease a baking dish and put in the bottom a layer of cooked cornmeal mush. Prepare the mush by gradually stirring into a quart of boiling water two teaspoonfuls of salt and two cupfuls of cornmeal; cook for a long time. Over this mixture spread the following: Cook one sliced onion, two cupfuls of Hamburg steak, one sliced tomato, one teaspoonful of salt, one and one-half teaspoonfuls of chili pepper. Place over the whole another layer of the mush and bake one-half hour.

Tomato and Hominy.—Take one can of cooked whole hominy, two cupfuls of canned tomatoes, one teaspoonful of salt, one tablespoonful of sugar, pepper and one onion, two strips of bacon and one egg. Boil together for fifteen minutes the hominy and tomato, seasoned with the salt, sugar and pepper. Cut the bacon and onion into small pieces and brown slightly in a frying pan. Add these to the boiled mixture. Fold in the beaten egg and bake in the oven until the egg sets.

Gelatin Beef.—Boil a piece from the neck and flank that is fat until it drops from the bones; when cool enough to handle, remove all the bone and sinew; season with salt and pepper and place in small bowls, pouring over the liquor in which the meat was cooked. Put a weight on each and when cold it is ready to slice. Other seasonings may be added as well as hard-cooked eggs, to add to its appearance and food value.

Pea Timbales.—Sift a can of peas through the colander, season to taste with salt and pepper, stir in the beaten yolk of one egg, one tablespoonful of butter and then add the stiffly beaten white of the egg. Fill greased timbale molds two-thirds full and poach in the oven until just firm enough to turn out. Overcooking spoils the flavor. Only a tender young pea should be used. Drain off the liquor and substitute chicken broth.

SEASONABLE GOOD THINGS

For those who do not care for the rich and delicious mince pie of our New England grandmothers, the following will take its place:

Nut Mince Pie.—Mix together in order one-half cupful each of chopped walnut meats and raisins, one cupful of chopped apple, one cupful of dark corn syrup, one-fourth of a cupful each of cider vinegar, molasses and any kind of canned fruit juice, one-half teaspoonful each of allspice, cloves, and one teaspoonful each of cinnamon and salt. Add enough crushed crackers to make the mixture of the right consistency and fill a large pastry lined pie plate. Cover with pastry and bake slowly.

Old Style Chicken Pie.—Cut up one good sized chicken, peel eight potatoes and cook together at the simmering point for twenty minutes. Meanwhile make a crust, using a quart of sifted flour, one teaspoonful of salt, one cupful of sour cream, one-half teaspoonful of soda and two teaspoonfuls of sugar. Remove the chicken and the potatoes, place in a baking pan, thicken the water in which they were cooked with four tablespoonfuls of flour, rubbed smooth with three tablespoonfuls of butter, seasoned with one-half tablespoonful of salt and one-half teaspoonful of pepper and pour over the chicken and potatoes in the baking pan. Roll out the crust until it nearly covers the dish, but does not attach to the pan. Place in a moderate oven and bake one hour or a little less. Five minutes before taking from the oven lift the crust and pour in one-half cupful more of rich sweet cream. Serve with thin slices of cold boiled ham.

Chicken Loaf.—Mix two cupfuls of cold-cooked chicken chopped with four cupfuls of bread crumbs moistened with hot milk. Add four tablespoonfuls of butter, salt, pepper and onion juice and bind with two beaten eggs. Pack in a mold, cover with greased paper and steam for an hour.

KIDNEY and BLADDER DISEASES are DECEPTIVE.

You may go to work in the morning, perfectly healthy. The world looks good to you. You plan a good time with your family when you return. They are waiting eagerly for you. The children are in the window, looking out. You never felt happier in your life. But along in the afternoon, you feel a sharp, shooting pain in the small of the back. You double over, you bend almost to the ground. You try to straighten up. It feels as if you were stabbed with a knife. You grit your teeth, you force yourself to finish the day's work. You go home, cross, nervous, exhausted. Something is wrong. What is the matter? The chances are, you have failed to heed Nature's Warning.

Heed Nature's Warning
 If the first symptoms of kidney and bladder trouble are overlooked, or if no measures are taken to correct them, the penalty must be paid for a slight over-exertion, a little fatigue, a strain on the nervous system, and the trouble long held back, takes on the form of an acute disease. The pain in the back and kidneys becomes severe. The bladder trouble increases. The burning sensation becomes more alarming. Sleep is lost. The appetite is impaired. The spirits are depressed. The body becomes weak and emaciated. The nervous system becomes shattered. Soon there is a very sick man or woman—perhaps dangerously ill—because Nature's Warning was not heeded in time.
